

The Work Retreat Schedule for Families

About a week before you arrive at Good Works, you will receive by email a first draft of the schedule for your family. This will include notes from the Paul who oversees Work Retreats to help you prepare for the week. Please let us know if you have any concerns with the projects assigned to you. We consider the schedule a beginning point and usually we make adjustments to accommodate the needs of your family and the needs of this ministry. The schedule will get us moving in the right direction. The final schedule for your family will be posted in the Hannah House where you will be staying.

Below is an actual Family Work Retreat schedule.
