

THANKSGIVING 2011

Dear friends,

Greetings with gratitude!

I am writing today say THANK YOU for walking with us. Darlene and I just celebrated our 30th anniversary in September. January 1st will mark the start of our 32nd year with Good Works!

Today, I want to share a few "links" with you that will offer you some perspective on what is happening in our hearts and what is going on inside the community of HOPE called Good Works.

I write in the HOPE that you are interested and that you will take some time to listen and watch and read.

1. This is a link to a talk I gave on November 20th from Exodus and Matthew called RISK YOUR LIFE FOR A CHANGE. The talk was given in Medina, Ohio at a church called New Life Fellowship. It is about 45 minutes long.

2. If you have not seen the new video documentary on Good Works, just click here <http://www.clickingcreateschange.com/causes/good-works> It is about 12 minutes long and tells the story of our Community of Hope through the voice of our four current staff who once lived at The Timothy House when they were experiencing homelessness. The documentary explores several unique aspects of Good Works through the lens of Ken Weinkauff, Terri Woodson, Jim Todd and Sherilyn Weinkauff.

3. In October, Duke Divinity School's FAITH AND LEADERSHIP journal published this extensive article on Good Works called POWER FOR GOOD. If you have a minute, take a look, will you?

4. On Friday November 11th, I spoke at a symposium at Rosedale Bible College (near Columbus) and presented on the topic: Sharing Community with the Least of These

Keith
