

Internship Experiences with Good Works

Summer Service 2018

Deepen your discipleship and develop your leadership abilities in this 9-week, paid internship. June 10 to August 11, 2018

- Make disciples with teens & adults who join us for short-term mission trips (Work Retreats)
- Live in Christian community at the Good Works Hannah House.
- Interact with Good Works staff in weekly discussions on justice, discipleship, community, Appalachian culture, and ministry with people in poverty.
- Practice hospitality and build relationships with people without homes who live at the Timothy House.
- Help lead our weekly community meal, Friday Night Life.
- All Summer Service interns have one or two areas of emphasis from among these opportunities:
 - Serving in practical, hands on ways through light construction and repairs at the homes of seniors and people with disabilities through Neighbors Helping Neighbors.
 - Creating engaging activities with kids every day at Summer Kids' Discovery Club, and helping to facilitate a Summer Lunch for children and adults.
 - Mentor local youth ages 14 to 17 who are engaged in service, character development, and growing healthy food through our Teen Agricultural Internship.
- Applications are due by or before March 31.

Appalachian Immersion

Experience the people and places of rural Appalachia deeply as you spend 4, 5 or 9 months immersed in the Good Works community.

- Live in Christian community at the Good Works Hannah House.
- Build mutual relationships with people struggling with poverty.
- Grow in your walk with God through study, reflection, and spiritual disciplines.
- Offer hospitality and leadership to short-term mission groups.
- Provide leadership in a wide range of Good Works contexts including our shelter for people without homes, weekly community meal and kids' club, and opportunities for practical service with people who are older, widowed or experiencing a disability.
- Share your home and life with people transitioning from homelessness.
- Housing, food and a $500/month stipend are provided.
- Internships generally run from September to December and January to April, but the program is flexible with opportunities to stay on for the summer.
- Applications are available any time.

Good Works exists to connect people from all walks of life with people in poverty
so that the kingdom of God can be experienced.

Hallowed Ground Agricultural Internship

Spend 8 months participating in the agricultural rhythms of Good Works. March 29 to November 14, 2018

- Serve our neighbors through cultivating garden spaces at the homes of older adults and people dealing with disabilities.
- Participate in the cultivation of the garden on the Good Works property as well as the care of any livestock.
- Mentor local youth ages 14 to 17 who are engaged in service, character development, and growing healthy food through our Teen Agricultural Internship.
- Meet weekly with staff to worship, pray, and grow by examining the works of authors such as Wendell Berry, Norman Wirzba, and Fred Bahnson.
- Live in Christian community at the Good Works Hannah House.
- Build mutual relationships with people struggling with poverty.
- Housing, food and a $500/month stipend are provided.
- Agricultural experience is not a prerequisite for this internship!
- Applications for the 2018 growing season are due February 2.
