Dear friends, greetings with gratitude!

December 2019

As we finish up the last month of 2019, I am preparing to start my 40th year with Good Works, still learning to love and serve people who experience homelessness and other forms of poverty. The long journey has been good because God is good. I was 22 when I started and will be 62 in early 2020. I feel God's grace. I know and feel the love of God and the love and support of many friends and supporters. I am grateful.

Good Works has become an institution with buildings, property, payroll, and policies. We are larger than when we first began, and the decisions involved in shifting and turning this organization seem to take much more time than they did when we were smaller. There is a much broader community than just Darlene and I, and we feel an enormous responsibility to the neighbors we are serving, as well as our co-workers, volunteers, and supporters.

I want to express to you my sincere gratitude for trusting us and for entrusting your gifts to us. We have been sustained. We are bearing fruit. Adults, children, families, those who struggle with mental illness, recovery, underemployment, lack of education, and the list goes on—these lovely neighbors are better off because YOU care about them and have chosen to express your love through your involvement with Good Works.

Words fall short in expressing the deep sense of HOPE I have because of all I have experienced and witnessed over these many years. Thank you for following, and reading, and sending checks, and donating on-line, and giving time, and listening, and writing notes. Thank you for walking alongside us, alongside of me.

Love is a verb!

PS- Good Works traditionally sends out a receipt for your 2019 gifts in the last two weeks of January. If you desire for us to send this to you sooner, please let us know.
